

Dear Ms. Lone Nielsen,

APAV - Portuguese Association for Victim Support - is organising the Victims & Mediation Seminar that will be held in 14-15 July 2008 in Lisbon, Portugal.

Organized under the Project Victims & Mediation, co-financed by the European Commission, this seminar aims to attain a more exact notion of the current standing and treatment information of victims in victim-offender mediation projects and programmes in Europe.

Given the importance of victim-offender mediation and considering your significant role in the victim support field, we would like to ask you to disseminate this event among your contacts, or trough your website and/or newsletter.

We welcome everyone to be part of this seminar and share this important opportunity for researchers and practitioners working in the area of mediation, victim support and justice.

For more detailed information please check the website:
